A brand synonymous with timeless ease, Carolina Herrera makes a stylish splash at The Hedges Inn this season.

by RACHEL FEINBLATT

LEAVE ROOM IN your weekend itinerary—and your closet—this summer. One of fashion's most iconic houses is heading to the Hamptons. From July 30 through Aug. 1, Carolina Herrera checks in for a residency at the library at The Hedges Inn, transforming the storied East Hampton hotel into the chicest shopping destination of the weekend.

Set within the inn's effortlessly elegant surroundings, the intimate pop-up will showcase a curated selection from Carolina Herrera's summer and pre-fall 2026 collections. Within the intimate boutique, guests can explore a thoughtfully curated selection, featuring polished ready-to-wear and impeccably crafted handbags designed to carry you effortlessly from backyard bashes to seaside settings and beyond.

Synonymous with East End timeless sophistication, the house's latest designs strike its signature balance of polished tailoring, vibrant color and effortless glamour. Expect the kind of forever pieces that earn compliments long after summer ends. 74 James Lane, East Hampton, carolinaherrera.com
